TERMS OF ENROLMENT AND STUDY
Understanding Art

1. The course materials will be issued only after realization of the draft. The course fee is non - refundable on issuance of course material. Aspiring students may assess the study material at the SANSKRUTI office or on the Institute's website www.understandart.com, before enrolment.
2. After studying each chapter in the Manual, students have to answer questions relevant to each section and deliver or post their answer copies to SANSKRUTI,(Original plus one zerox copy). Answer copies of at least one chapter should be submitted at a time. SANSKRUTI faculty will evaluate these and post the corrected copies back. Incase the answers are incorrect, each student will be given a second opportunity to answer the questions correctly.
3. SANSKRUTI Certificate will be awarded to students who study the course, submit all answer sheets and satisfactorily pass the evaluation. After completion of the course within the stipulated time period and with all answer sheets evaluated along with all the redo questions with a 'Fair' and above grade the student is awarded a Certificate. Students need to complete all the 'repeat' or 'redo' answers, before qualifying for the Certificate. The decision of the Institute will be final in this respect.
4. The Course duration is six months. Students taking longer than six months will be charged as per the extension rules of the Institute. SANSKRUTI will not be responsible for papers lost in the mail.
5. Availability of work in the art field depends on individual talent and initiative. SANSKRUTI cannot guarantee that successful students will get best jobs immediately, though our Certificate course could set you well on the path to such a placement or your own work.
6. SANSKRUTI art course is for individual enrolment and study. On successful completion of the course a Certificate is awarded only to the student enrolled and not to couples or families.
7. All disputes concerning the SANSKRUTI art course are subject to Mumbai jurisdiction only.
